BRIG IS A STAKE WINNER

E. R. BRADLEY'S FILLY SCORES IN THE FRANK FEHR SELLING STAKES.

Beats Ozana and Donau Largely Because of Skilful Riding on Part of Jockey McCahey—Round the World Falls in Handicap.

Louisville, Ky., May 23.—In a sensational finish, after a prolonged drive, E. R. Bradley's three-year-old filly, Brig, triumphed over Ozana and Donau in the Frank Fehr Selling Stakes, which featured a good end this afternoon at Churchill Downs. The net value of the stake to the winner was $1,400. Brig was the favorite and she ran the best race of her career. Jockey McCahey's skill in the saddle was a factor in her victory, his finish being a brilliant bit of horsemanship. Ozana was the runner-up, landing a nose behind the winner, with a similar margin separating her from the erratic Donau. The last named was probably best, but seemed to sulk during the early stages. He gradually picked up the rear guard and finished with a rush that would have carried him into the lead in a few more strides. Other incidents that marked the running of the race was the complete breakdown of Wheelwright, the distressed fashion in which Prince Gal came out of the race, and the tough trip that Vreeland experienced. The latter came in for much bumping.

Year.	Winner.	A.Wt.	Jockey.	Val. Time.
1895	Arpancho	112	McClure	1:45.1-44

1912	Brig	112	McCahey	1:45.1-39

The handicap that preceded the stake race brought about the undoing of Round the World. Though conceding much weight to good opposition, she was regarded as capable of winning. She received the worst of the start and also suffered by being caught in a jam. When clear in the stretch, she came on resolutely, but could never overhaul Little Father and Buckhorn. The latter, making his first start in the colors of his new owner, came out of the race with a badly cut near foreleg, that may keep him out of training temporarily.

Today's patronage was again of generous proportions and the volume of betting showed a decided increase over former days this week. This was in the main due to the larger fields that afforded opportunity for greater show speculation.

Jockey C. Peak departed tonight for Toronto, where he will have the mount in Meridian in the Toronto Cup, set for decision next Saturday. He will return here Monday.

H. C. Hallenbeck was disturbed over the report that he had taken exception to the suspension of Jockey Shilling by the starter and that as a result he would not be any of his horses here in future. "He is absolutely no truth in the report," said Mr. Hallenbeck. "Our plans called for shipping the stable to Latonia next Sunday and this will be adhered to. Horses from the stable will be shipped out. Adams Express will be a starter next Saturday, and possibly on Sunday. It is again intended to hold a race meeting at Hawthorne track, Chicago, July 3 and 4.

Additional stable assignments were today made to owners that are to race at Latonia. The total of the applications for stalls made to date at Latonia is over 700.

The following amateurs will have mounts in the Gentlemen's Cup race at the Downs on Saturday: R. W. Keene, H. G. Osborn, H. J. Leon, L. W. Shannon, Lucas B. Combs, Brownell Combs and C. Barry Shannon, of Lexington; K. D. Alexander, of Spring Station, Ky.; Secretary Davis announces that a greater number of applications were received this spring from gentlemen riders than ever before. The running of the Gentlemen's Cup this season will be the sixteenth in the history of the event, which has proved so popular in society circles in the past. The distance of the race is one mile and the value of the purse is $500. The rider of the winner will receive plate of the value of $250.

GOOD MATERIAL FOR HUNT MEETING.

Baltimore, Md., May 23.—Preparations are going forward at Pimlico for the Maryland United Hunt meeting, which takes place May 28, 30 and June 1. Several hundred horses will be on hand of a class rarely found at any but the big races. Pimlico has received a thorough cleaning up since the close of the Jockey Club meeting, and this week several loads of fresh brush will be put in the jumps. Among the leading owners and trainers whose horses are now stabled at the track or in nearby barns are: J. E. Davis, Ral Parr, William Garth, Harry W. Saunders, C. P. Sherman, Harry Eltes and others. W. C. Saunders has arrived with five from Richmond, Va., and also the horses that went to Benning for the Washington Riding and Hunt Club races have returned to Pimlico with the exception of the army officers' string, which will arrive during the last of the week.

PLATE GLASS WINS CONNAUGHT CUP.

Robert Davies Takes Coveted Canadian Race with Horse That He Bought for the Purpose.

Toronto, Ont., May 23.—Plate Glass, the black son of Plaudit that Robert Davies purchased at Norfolk last spring with the view of winning the Connaught Cup at Woodbine, made good for his new owner by beating J. E. Seagram's Rockville a nose for that trophy this afternoon. Plate Glass shouldered 132 pounds, showed a high order of speed from the start and displayed great courage in the final drive. The race called for Canadian-owned horses and it held special interest for Canadian turfmen from the fact that it was the first running for the challenge cup presented by the Duke and Duchess of Connaught.

The races were run under much more favorable conditions than had prevailed previously during the meeting. The sun came out this morning, and the weather was warm and pleasant. There was also a decided improvement in the going. Besides the Connaught Cup, the club offered an attractive Maple Leaf Stakes, to which was added $1,000, and the Woodbine Steeplechase, $1,500 added. The running of the latter event had been postponed twice. There were six starters and only two of the number finished the course without mishap, the winner turning up in the top weight, St. Abe, which won easily by half a dozen lengths from the added starter, Broadsword. Be thankful, after a strenuous trip in which he fell at the thirteenth and nineteenth fences, finished third.

The condensed history of the Woodbine Steeplechase since 1902 is as follows:

Year.	Winner.	A.Wt.	Jockey.	Val. Time.
1902	Sallust	130	O'Donnell	5:16
1903	Haghee	130	Galagher	5:15

1905	Conover	130	Mr. Harris	5:17
1906	Conover	130	Mr. Kerr	5:16

1911	The Welkin	130	Allen	5:17
1912	St. Abe	130	W. Allen	5:16

Amberite was the winner of the Maple Leaf Stakes, the table history of which since 1900 is given below:

Year.	Winner.	Wt.	Jockey.	Val. Time.
1900	Barley Sugar	117	Ballard	2:04

1911	Bride Lane	117	Mugrave	2:04
1912	Amberite	117	C. Burns	2:04

The Belmont colors were again seen in front when Sand Vale won the second race. It was the fifth victory that the stable has scored in seven starts, with McTaggart in the saddle.

Between the running of the third and fourth races Richard P. Carman worked his Toronto Cup candidate, Meridian, a mile and an eighth in 1:56.2, the fractional time being: 12, 24, 36, 48, 1:01, 1:14, 1:28, 1:42, 1:56.2. M. Caubon joined him on the backstretch and went with him to the finish. Jockey C. Peak will come from Louisville to ride Meridian on Saturday.

R. J. Mackenzie, who purchased the three-year-old Buckhorn from Woodford Clay at Louisville a few days ago, is after the two-year-old Monocacy, who the deal is consummated. Monocacy will start in the Mackenzie colors in the Victoria Stakes tomorrow.

St. Bass, winner of the King's Plate in 1911, bowed a tendon a few days ago and will be retired to his owner's farm at Oakville, Ont.

Guy Burns, who left for New York on Saturday next to assist James Rowe in trying out some of the Whitney two-year-olds at the Brookdale Farm in New Jersey.

The Beverwyck Stable is after Jockey Foreland and an attempt will be made to have the contract which H. G. Bedwell claims to hold on the lad transferred to Frank J. Nolan. The representative of the Canadian Racing Association refused to sanction the transfer for the reason that no papers were filed here by Mr. Bedwell on the lad.

FLYING FOOTSTEPS IN WINNING FORM.

Spokane, Wash., May 23.—The sport began at Alan today with a victory for the odds-on favorite, Velle Forty. She dwelt as the barrier arose and left it many lengths behind her opposition, but gradually wore them down to get up in time to win. She was a hard drive. Marie Hyde, the heavily backed favorite of the third race, received a sluggish start from Jockey Buxton. Flying Footsteps found going that suited her and scored after a hard drive. Amoret, the odds-on choice of this race, was kicked at the post by Sister Julia. She never was a contender at any time during the running.

Lady Stalwart was bid up $200 over her entered price by J. M. Forbes and was bid in by her owner, J. M. Forbes, who was bid up to $800 and was bid up to $200 by J. M. Forbes, but was retained by H. M. Mason.

Jockeys Post and Burlingame drew three days' suspension at the hands of starter Dwyer.

Jockey Hoffman was warned by the judges for rough riding.

Sancho Panza, which won a race at Alan May 17, was entered in that race with a claim of a non-winning allowance for 1911 and 1912. Secretary J. M. Forbes word that Sancho Panza won two races at the Newport, Ky., fair in September, 1911. The purse was protested and the judges allowed the protest, and awarded the purse to Diamond Buckle.

Cal Curran, a winner here on May 13, was entered with a claim for a gelding's allowance, whereas he is a colt. The purse was taken from him and awarded to Little Birdie, which had finished second.

ALFRED NOBLE FOR ENDURANCE STAKES.

New York, May 23.—Ivan Fox, Pennsylvania turfman and owner of Alfred Noble, considered by many horsemen to be the champion steeplechase horse of this country, will nominate the great jumper for the Kentucky Endurance Stakes, to be run at Louisville next fall.

Mr. Fox decided to name the big brown son of Garry Hermann as a starter in the Endurance Stakes after his horse's trials for his recent series of successes at Pimlico and Benning. Alfred Noble's work on the flat in the forenoon was of a character to lead to the belief that he will race with distinction over the Kentucky Endurance Stake route of four miles. The purse will be an unusually rich one, as the New Louisville Jockey Club will add $7,500 and the Kentucky State Racing Commission will donate a $1,000 gold cup.

In addition to being a fine individual, Alfred Noble traces to the stoniest families in the stud book. His dam, Ethel Pace, is a daughter of Troubadour, winner of the Suburban Handicap of 1886.

At short time ago Mr. Fox wrote to H. Eugene Leigh, the American trainer now handling a big string in France, regarding the advisability of shipping Alfred Noble to Mazona Laiffe. When asked if he had changed his plans to race in the French Republic, Mr. Fox said: "The arrangements between Mr. Leigh and myself to race in France are not completed; furthermore, I would enjoy seeing Alfred Noble race in the Kentucky Endurance Stakes."

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

J. M., Chicago. The bet on the "Dangerous March entry," which meant the J. W. Fuller entry, lost.A. J., Chicago. The place parlay on Granite and Little Father won as a single place bet on the latter.Geo. D., Cincinnati, O. The parlay won on Rose of Seville bet on her, being void as to Granite. See reply to "Vanderburg."
Vanderburg, Evansville, Ind. Money bet on a horse to win a certain race does not follow that horse if it is scratched and added to another race which neither of the parties concerned had in view.
The gist of the Granite matter is this: The horse was entered in the third race and a great many excellent people backed him to win the race. But he was also eligible to start in the stake race of "hat day," and his owners scratched him from the third race and started him in the more valuable stake race. He won it. It was this circumstance that induced the aforementioned excellent people to think their money should follow Granite from the third race, from which he was scratched to that which he won. On the contrary, had Granite been beaten instead of winning, it is more than probable those excellent people would have been firmly of the opinion that their wagers had been made on the third race exclusively, the result being a draw for their money. In this they would have been correct.

No more, no less, and no other proposition—except as herein stated—considered. Here is a chance to get in on a RARE killing. The reason I am so POSITIVE is that it is from the stable in which I AM INTERESTED. If you are skeptical "meet me face to face." Read the bill of sale on the animal and its most recent trials.
